

KansasBio and our industry partners invite you to participate in a Bioscience Workforce Development Hot Team Meeting where local KansasBio members and partners will share insights and results from the 2010 Bioscience Workforce Survey, with a goal to enhance communications between the bioscience industry and P-20 educators in the Wichita and South Central Kansas region and develop a bioscience workforce roadmap for success

Tuesday, October 5, 2010

- National Institute for Aviation Research, 4004 N Webb Road, Wichita, KS
- Hosts: Wichita State University, ICM Inc, Wichita Technology Corporation, Workforce Alliance of SC Kansas, REAP

Agenda

Welcome	8am
Hear from the KBA about the current status of the Kansas Bioscience Initiative and the state's investment outcomes
Bioscience Medical Devices - CIBOR	8:25am
Meet and hear from the new CEO of CIBOR as he discusses the current and future needs of their research
Bio-energy industry – ICM, Inc.	8:45am
Hear from industry researchers and business leaders in the bioenergy field as they share how their needs for talent are changing
Bioscience Workforce Survey results	9:05am
Dr David McDonald from Wichita State University will highlight results from the recent KansasBio Bioscience Workforce Survey, with details about what bio industry Skills and competencies are being sought
Breakout sessions to map assets and vision future plans	9:30-11:30am
Report Back and Debrief Session	11:30am-noon
Each breakout group will report their results to begin fashioning a bioscience Workforce Roadmap for Wichita and SC Kansas

the energy of innovation™

RSVP to Kelsi Pio at kpio@kansasbio.org or (913) 495-4334